GLOPAC welcomes visiting fellows of the 18th group

Tokyo, Oct. 2023

The GLOPAC welcomed a group of nine officials from securities regulators in nine jurisdictions as its 18th visiting fellows. The visiting fellows completed an online course before their visit, which helped the group make the most of the three-week period of the program to experience advanced learning. The visiting fellows of this time came from Cambodia, Egypt, India, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Nepal, Thailand, and Vietnam.

The GLOPAC of Japan FSA has welcomed 196 visiting fellows from 37 jurisdictions so far.

The visiting fellows greeted FSA Commissioner Mr. Kurita and Vice Minister for International Affairs Mr. Ariizumi, expressing gratitude for hosting the program. The ten-business-day program commenced on 12th October and successfully concluded on 25th October.

Meet our visiting fellows

56% of the visiting fellows rated the overall program as "very satisfactory," while 89% of the visiting fellows rated the course contents as "very satisfactory." Here are the visiting fellows' comments:

"GLOPAC provides a valuable chance to enhance knowledge and build relationships within the global financial community, connecting participants with JFSA and international financial sectors. Through this program, individuals can deepen their understanding of capital markets while expanding their professional network, making it an invaluable opportunity for growth and collaboration."

*Mr. Tayakorn Jitrakuldhacha
Securities Exchange
Commission of Thailand*

"GLOPAC does a great job and offers an amazing program that supports different jurisdictions and allows them to learn from Japan's securities market. As a participant of this esteemed program, I have gained invaluable insights and lessons on issues related to sustainable finance and regulatory practices, especially by interacting with fellows from different countries. I am grateful for the wonderful opportunity. Doumo Arigatou Gozaimasu."

*Ms. Evelyn Loko Mbithi
Capital Market Authority, of Kenya*

The program includes lectures on a variety of topics related to securities regulation and frameworks, including the supervision of intermediaries, disclosure requirements, corporate governance, and sustainable finance.

The visiting fellows engaged in in-depth discussions with FSA officials on these topics, which enhanced their understanding of the discussions in their group projects. Throughout the group projects, the participants shared their experiences and insights and concluded with their final presentations to FSA officials at the end of the program.

Some of the sessions were generously provided by external institutions. The Japan Exchange Group and the Japan Securities Dealers Association graciously welcomed the visiting fellows.

The program also offered a variety of extracurricular experiences to help the visiting fellows gain a better understanding of Japan and build a network among the group. The group had the opportunity to tour to historical sites of Kamakura, and participated in sessions on the Japanese language and cultural experiences.
